
Patients:

In order to minimize the risk to you, your visitor and our staff, we will be trying to minimize the movement in and out of patient rooms.

- Please refrain from coming and going from the room as much as possible
- Caregivers are monitoring you from the desk. Please press the call light should you need something
- We will update you when your test results come back

Thank you for your understanding!